

New ACOTE Officers

AOTA's Accreditation Council for Occupational Therapy Education (ACOTE®) is pleased to welcome Letha J. Mosley, PhD, OTR/L, FAOTA, as the new ACOTE Chairperson. Dr. Mosley served during this past year as ACOTE Chairperson-Elect, and officially became ACOTE Chairperson at the conclusion of Dr. Jane Olson's term of office on August 2, 2009.

Dr. Mosley has over 29 years of experience in the field of occupational therapy and has practiced in both clinical and academic positions. She is currently a tenured Assistant Professor in the occupational therapy program at the University of Central Arkansas. Dr. Mosley has a long history of contributing as a volunteer to the profession at the local, state, and national level. She has served on the Roster of Accreditation Evaluators, ACOTE, and the Commission on Education.

Carol Doehler, MS, OTR/L, FAOTA, also completed her ACOTE term of Vice-Chairperson and ACOTE member, with 7 years of dedicated service. Beth Ann Hatkevich, PhD, OTR/L, Director of Clinical & Educational Programming at The University of Toledo Health Science Campus, Toledo, Ohio, was appointed as the new Vice-Chairperson. Ms. Doehler's ACOTE member position will be filled by Debra Chasanoff, MEd, OTR/L, director of the occupational therapy assistant program at the State College of Florida, Manatee-Sarasota (formerly Manatee Community College) in Bradenton, Florida.

The newly elected ACOTE Treasurer is Barbara Ostrove, OTR/L, Director of Occupational Therapy at Butler Hospital in Providence, Rhode Island.
