

Final Adverse ACOTE® Accreditation Actions

Completion of the AOTA Accreditation Council for Occupational Therapy Education (ACOTE®) due process procedures has resulted in the following accreditation actions becoming final:

Developing Program Status Denied (effective April 2009):

- Bossier Parish Community College (associate degree)
Bossier City, Louisiana
- North Central State College (associate degree)
Mansfield, Ohio

Programs denied Developing Program Status may not admit students into the occupational therapy assistant program and are not eligible to proceed to the Initial Review step of the initial accreditation process; however, these programs are eligible to re-apply for Developing Program Status.

Developing Program Status Denied as a Primary Location (effective April 2009):

- Brown Mackie College-Atlanta (associate degree)
Atlanta, Georgia
(The program was denied Developing Program Status as an independent primary location. However, Brown Mackie College-Atlanta remains a developing additional location of Brown Mackie College-South Bend and will proceed in the initial accreditation process. An initial on-site evaluation is scheduled to be conducted in October 2009.)
