PRESENTED BY KRISTIN S. CONABOY, OTR/L, SUSAN M. NOCHAJSKI, PHD, OTR/L, SANDRA SCHEFKIND, MS, OTR/L, AND JUDITH SCHOONOVER, MED, OTR/L, ATP
EARN .1 AOTA CEU (1 NBCOT PDU/1 CONTACT HOUR)

Occupational therapy practitioners have specialized knowledge and skills that can promote academic success and social participation as students transition through the educational system and prepare for their future. This CE on CD™ presents an overview of the importance of addressing transition needs as part of a student's IEP and the key role of the occupational therapy practitioner as a potential collaborative member of the transition team.

Originally presented as an Audiolnsight™ Seminar in February 2008.

Response to Intervention: A Role for Occupational Therapy Practitioners

PRESENTED BY GLORIA FROLEK CLARK, MS, OTR/L, BCP, FAOTA
EARN .2 AOTA CEUS (2 NBCOT PDUS/2 CONTACT HOURS)

Response to Intervention (RtI) is a process for educational decision-making promoted by the U.S. Department of Education. High-quality instruction and interventions are matched to the student's needs, and progress is monitored frequently. Occupational therapy practitioners need to understand how federal statute and data-based decision-making have changed how we address the needs of students. This CE on CD™ addresses the evolving role of occupational therapists and occupational therapy assistants who work with students in grades K-12.

Originally presented as an Audiolnsight™ Seminar in March 2007.

The New IDEA Regulations: What Do They Mean to Your School-Based and EI Practice?

PRESENTED BY LESLIE L. JACKSON, MED, OT AND TIM NANOF, MSW
EARN .2 AOTA CEUS (2 NBCOT PDUS/2 CONTACT HOURS)

With the 2004 reauthorization of IDEA and the new Part B regulations, released in August 2006, occupational therapy practitioners in school-based and early intervention practice need to understand what they mean, how they impact their work, and what new opportunities may result.

Originally presented as an Audiolnsight™ Seminar in October 2006.

Everyday Ethics: Core Knowledge for Occupational Therapy Practitioners and Educators

BY AOTA'S ETHICS COMMISSION

EARN .3 AOTA CEUS (3 NBCOT PDUS/3 CONTACT HOURS)

An essential resource that provides foundational information related to ethics and the AOTA "Ethics Standards" (Occupational Therapy Code of Ethics (2005), Core Values and Attitudes, and Guidelines to the Code of Ethics) through audio and visual media presentations. A printable version of the media presentation is included.

The course material will help practitioners and educators identify and analyze ethical dilemmas, provide a framework for making ethical decisions, identify the different agencies involved in regulating the profession of occupational therapy and their roles, and identify a process for filing and handling complaints related to ethical violations. The AOTA Press publication Reference Guide to the Occupational Therapy Ethics Standards, 2008 Edition is a required text for successfully completing this course.
