

Hill Day Fact Sheet

AOTA Contacts:

Tim Nanof—Legislative Representative, (301) 602-1071 tnanof@aota.org

Christina Metzler—Chief Public Affairs Officer, (301) 602-4052 cmetzler@aota.org

Darlene Dennis—AOTPAC Administrator, 1(301) 366-3109 ddennis@aota.org

Rachel Roberts—Federal Affairs Administrative Assistant, (301) 652-6611 Ext. 2010

Capitol Hill Information:

Capitol Switchboard: 1(202) 224-3121

Accessible Entrances

Accessible entrances to the Capitol and the House and Senate Office Buildings are as follows:

- Capitol—Public Tours enter on the South or House Side of the Capitol, which is accessible. Official Senate Business enters on the North Side of the Capitol, which is accessible.
- Russell Senate Office Building—Delaware entrance on ground level closest to Constitution Avenue.
- Dirksen Senate Office Building—First Street and C Street entrance.
- Hart Senate Office Building—Second Street entrance.
- Cannon House Office Building—Entrance on New Jersey Avenue, S.E., south of the terrace at the intersection with Independence Avenue.
- Longworth House Office Building—Main entrance, Independence and New Jersey Avenues.
- Rayburn House Office Building—Main entrance, horseshoe drive off South Capitol Street.
- Ford House Office Building—Entrance on 3rd Street, S.W., near intersection with D Street, S.W.